and to any and all persons assisting, aiding, abetting, or confederating with you, and to each and every of them, greeting:

Whereas it hath been represented to the Honorable Jesse Holdom, one of the judges of the superior court of Cook County, in the State aforesaid, on the part of A. R. Barnes & Co., Toby Rubovits, Poole Brothers, Rogers & Co., R. R. Donnelley & Sons Co., M. A. Donohue & Co., Faithorn Printing Company, The Franklin Company, W. F. Hall Printing Company, M. A. Fountain & Company, Marshall-Jackson Co., Rogers & Smith Co., C. H. Morgan & Co., Rand, McNally & Co., Marsh, Aiken & Curtis Co., Stearns Bros. & Co., Wagner & Hanson Co., Chicago Label and Box Co., P. F. Pettibone & Co., and Stevens, Maloney & Co., complainants, in their certain bill of complaint exhibited before said judge and filed in said court against you, the said above-named defendants, among other things, that you are combining and confederating with others to injure the complainants touching the matters set forth in said bill, and that your actings and doings in the premises are contrary to equity and good conscience. And the said judge having ordered that a writ of injunction issue out of said court according to the prayer of said bill, and the complainants having given bond as required by said order, we therefore, in consideration thereof, and of the particular matters in said bill set forth, do strictly command you, the said above-named defendants, and your confederates and the servants and agents of each of you and any and all persons assisting, aiding, and abetting you or any of you, now or hereafter, or confederating or acting in concert with you or any of you, that you do absolutely desist and refrain—

From in any manner interfering with, hindering, obstructing, or stopping the business of said complainants, or any of them, or of their agents, servants, or employees, in the operation of the business of said complainants, respectively;

From picketing or maintaining at or near the premises of said complainants, or any of them, any picket or pickets;

From assaulting or intimidating by threats or otherwise the employees of any of said complainants, or any person who may become or seek to become employees of said complainants, or either of them;

From congregating about or near the places of business of any of said complainants, or about or near any place where their employees are lodged or boarded, for the purpose of compelling, inducing, or soliciting the employees of any of said complainants to leave their service or to refuse to work for them, or any of them, or for the purpose of preventing or attempting to prevent any person from freely entering into the service of any of said complainants;

From interfering with or attempting to hinder complainants, or any of them, in carrying on their business in the usual and ordinary way;

From following the employees of any of said complainants to their homes or other places or calling upon them, for the purpose of inducing them to leave the employ of said complainants, or of molesting or intimidating them or their families;

From attempting by bribery, payment or promise of money, offers of transportation, or other rewards, to induce the employees of any of said complainants to leave their service;

From organizing or maintaining any boycott against said complainants, or any of them;

JUN 3
D. of D.

From attempting to induce customers or other persons to abstain from working for or accepting work from said complainants, or any of them;

From attempting to prevent, by threats of injury or by threats of calling strikes, any persons from accepting work from or doing work for such complainants, or any of them;

From attempting to create or enforce any boycott against any of the employees of the complainants, or any of them, and from attempting to induce people in their neighborhood or elsewhere not to deal with them;

From sending any circulars or other communications to customers or other persons who might deal or transact business with said complainants, or either of them, for the purpose of dissuading such persons from so doing, and from doing any other act or thing in furtherance of the conspiracy set forth in said bill, until this honorable court in chancery sitting shall make other orders to the contrary. Hereof fail not, under penalty of what the law directs.

To the sheriff of said county, to execute and return in due form of law.

Witness, Charles W. Vail, clerk of said court, and the seal thereof, at Chicago aforesaid, this 11th day of October, A. D. 1905.

TENNEY, COFFEEN, HARDING & WILKERSON,
Complainant's solicitors.

In the district court of Allen County, State of Kansas.

The United Iron Works Company, a corporation, plaintiff, v. E. Shuman, Charles Simms, J. A. Beeler, D. E. Fox, A. L. Richards, J. Speath, Ben Haney, A. K. Louis, F. Witt, J. A. Champieux, B. Ross, G. Morgan, J. W. Cason, H. E. Wagner, R. L. Samples, Nay Cruise, Gus Speath, Jesse Wright, Will Smith, W. N. Hornsby, W. E. McConkey, A. S. Long, W. H. Cornegie, and the officers and members of the Iron Molders' Union No. 416, of Iola, Kans., defendants. No. 7355.

ORDER.

The application of plaintiff for temporary injunction against defendants coming on for hearing before me at chambers at court-house, city of Iola, Allen County, Kans., on July 30, 1906, at 9 a. m., the plaintiff present by McClain & Apt, its attorneys, and defendants present by Travis Morse and George C. Ferguson, their attorneys, the hearing was proceeded with, both parties introduced their evidence, consisting of the verified petition of plaintiff and affidavits, all of which are filed herein; after the introduction of the evidence and arguments of counsel, closing July 31, 1906, I took the matter under advisement until August 6, 1906.

And now August 6, 1906, parties present as before, I, having duly considered the evidence and arguments of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, do find that the plaintiff is entitled to a temporary injunction against the defendants served with process and notice herein.

And it is therefore ordered and directed by me that the defendants, The Iron Molders' Union No. 416, of Iola, Kansas, Charles Simms, J. A. Beeler, D. E. Fox, A. L. Richards, A. K. Louis, F. Witt, J. A. Champieux, R. L. Samples, and George Speath, and each, every and all of them, their agents, servants, representatives, coadjutors, and all persons connected with them, or either of them, or acting by, through or under them, or either of them, from assaulting, menacing, threatening, or intimidating, whether by manner, attitude, speech, numbers or other acts or means, the men and workmen in plaintiff's employ, or who come to plaintiff for employment, and from interfering with said plaintiff's business by any unlawful means for the purpose of preventing any person or persons who now are or may hereafter be in plaintiff's employment from continuing therein, or who, being desirous of entering said employment, from doing so, or continuing therein; from threatening by the means of force or violence or threats thereof, or by the use of opprobrious epithets or means of intimidation, whether upon or near the premises of said complainant or elsewhere, the employees hired and employed by said complainant in its said shops, or either of them, for the purpose or with the design of intimidating such employees, or forcing them, or any of them, by said means, to quit the service of said complainant;

From enticing any employee of said plaintiff who may have a definite or fixed contract of employment with said complainant for a definite period, and particularly those employed by said plaintiff to take the place of strikers in its works, to break his or their contracts of employment with such plaintiff by leaving the employment of said complainant before the termination thereof.

From conspiring, confederating, or combining among themselves, or with other parties to do or accomplish any of the foregoing acts, or to cause the same to be done or accomplished, or to obstruct or impede said complainant in the carrying on of its business, or to entice or solicit any other party or parties to do or attempt to accomplish, singly, or in connection with any of the said defendants, any of the foregoing acts hereby or heretofore sought to be restrained or enjoined.

This order to become operative upon the plaintiffs filing a bond in the sum of $500, with sureties to be approved by the clerk of this court, conditioned as is provided by law, and to continue in force until the final determination of the above-entitled action, unless otherwise ordered by the court or judge thereof.

The restraining order heretofore granted herein to remain in force for five days from this date, during which time the aforesaid bond of plaintiff to be approved and filed herein; to all of which defendants except.

Done at chambers at the city of Iola, Allen County, State of Kansas, this 6th day of August, A. D. 1906.

OSCAR FOUST, Judge.

I, C. E. Adams, clerk of the district court, do hereby certify the above to be a true copy of the original order.

Witness my hand and the seal of the court affixed this 9th day of August, 1906.

ORDER.

On the application of the plaintiff and for good cause shown it is hereby ordered that the above-named defendants, and each of them, appear before me at court room No. 7 on the 8th day of March, 1901, at 9.30 o'clock a. m., to show cause why temporary injunction should not issue against them and each of them as prayed in said petition, and until the hearing on said application for a temporary injunction, and until the further order of this court, a temporary restraining order is hereby granted against said defendants and each of them, and all members of said "Union No. 10" and "Union No. 114," and all persons acting by, through, or under the orders and directions of said "Union No. 10" and "Union No. 114," their officers or agents, and all persons acting under the order and direction of the defendants herein, or either of them, restraining them as follows:

1. From in any manner interfering with the employees of the Omaha Cooperage Company now in the employ of the said Omaha Cooperage Company, and from in any manner interfering with any person, by way of threats, personal violence, intimidation, or other unlawful means calculated to prevent or intended to prevent such person from entering the employ of said Omaha Cooperage Company or from continuing in the employ of said Omaha Cooperage Company, or intended to induce such person or persons to leave the employ of said Omaha Cooperage Company.

2. From interfering, intimidating, or boycotting, by violence, molestation, or threatening in any manner the customers of said Omaha Cooperage Company, for the purpose, by means of such interference, intimidation, boycott, or threats, of inducing such person or persons not to deal with or do business with said Omaha Cooperage Company.

3. From congregating or loitering about or in the neighborhood of the premises of the Omaha Cooperage Company with intent to interfere with the employees of said plaintiff or with the prosecution of their work, and to interfere with or intimidate the employees of said plaintiff with intent to cause them to leave the employment of plaintiff, or interfere with or obstruct in any manner any of said employees in going to or from the plaintiff's factory.

4. From interfering with the free access of employees of the plaintiff to the plaintiff's premises and their place of work and the return of said employees to their places of business or homes.

5. From giving any directions of orders to committees, associations, or otherwise, for the performance of any such act or threats herein enjoined, and from in any manner impeding, obstructing, or interfering with the regular operation and conduct of the business of the plaintiff.

It is further ordered that notice of the pendency of plaintiff's application for a temporary injunction shall be given to each of said defendants five days before said hearing, and that this restraining order shall take effect upon the giving of a good, sufficient bond in the sum of $500 conditioned as required by law.

CHARLES T. DICKINSON, Judge.

I hereby certify that the bond hereinbefore provided for in the sum of $500 has been filed and approved.

FRANK A. BROADWELL,
Clerk of District Court.

STATE OF NEBRASKA,
Douglas County, ss:

I, Frank A. Broadwell, clerk of the district court in and for the said State and county, do hereby certify that I have compared the above order of said court with the original order as it appears of record on folio —, Journal 73, of said court, and that the same is a correct transcript thereof and the whole of said original order.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of said court to be affixed at the city of Omaha, this 1st day of March, A. D. 1901.

FRANK A. BROADWELL, Clerk.
By ———, Deputy.

New Jersey, to wit: The State of New Jersey, to Henry Eger, Leo Finnely, Richard Harrison, Adam Meisinger, Charles Hunkle, George Leary, and The Metal Polishers, Buffers, Platers, Brass Molders, and Brass Workers' Union of North America, their servants, attorneys, and agents, and each and every of them, greeting:

Whereas it hath been represented to us, in our court of chancery, on the part of the New York Metallic Bedstead Company, complainants, that they have lately exhibited their bill of complaint against you, the said Henry Eger, Leo Finnely, Richard Harrison, Adam Meisinger, Charles Hunkle, George Leary, and The Metal Polishers, Buffers, Platers, Brass Molders, and Brass Workers' Union of North America, defendants, to be relieved touching the matters set forth in the said bill.

We therefore, in consideration of the premises, and of the particular matters set forth in the said bill, do strictly enjoin and command you, the said Henry Eger, Leo Finnely, Richard Harrison, Adam Meisinger, Charles Hunkle, George Leary, and The Metal Polishers, Buffers, Platers, Brass Molders and Brass Workers' Union of North America, their servants, attorneys, and agents, and all and every the persons before mentioned, and each and every of you, under the penalty that may fall thereon, that you and every of you do absolutely desist and refrain from in any manner knowingly and intentionally causing or attempting to cause by threats, intimidations, force, violence, or the payment of money, or the promise of the payment of money, or by the furnishing or offer to furnish of railroad or other transportation, inducements, or persuasions, any of the employees of the complainant to leave the service of the complainant; from any and all personal molestation of persons willing to be employed by complainant with intent to coerce such persons, to refrain from entering such employment; from addressing against their will persons willing to be employed by complainant, and thereby causing them personal annoyance, with a view to persuade them to refrain from such employment; from loitering or picketing in the streets near the factory of the complainant on Pacific avenue, Jersey City, with intent and with the effect to procure the personal molestation and annoyance of persons employed and willing to be employed by complainant, with a view to cause persons so employed to quit their employment or persons willing to be employed by complainant to refrain from such employment; from violence, threats of violence, insults, indecent talk, abusive epithets, practiced upon any persons without their consent with intent to coerce them to refrain from entering the employment of complainant or to leave its employment, until you, the said defendants, shall have fully answered the said bill of complaint and our said court shall make other order to the contrary.

Witness his honor, William J. Magie, our chancellor, at Trenton, the 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1906.

Merrick, and each of them, be, and they hereby are, restrained from in any manner knowingly and intentionally causing, or attempting to cause, by threats, offers of money, payments of money, offering to pay expenses, or by inducements or persuasions to any employee or employees of the complainant under contract to render service to it, to break such contract by quitting such service; from any and all personal molestation of persons willing to be employed by complainant with intent to coerce such persons from entering such employment; from addressing persons willing to be employed by complainant against their will, and thereby causing them personal annoyance with a view to persuade them to refrain from such employment; from loitering or picketing in the streets near the premises of complainant on Stockton street, in the town of Phillipsburg, Warren county, N. J., and in the streets of said town in and along which it is necessary for the employees of the complainant to pass in going to and from their work, with intent to procure the personal molestation and annoyance of persons employed, or willing to be employed by complainant, and to induce them to refrain from such employment; from violence, threats of violence, insults, indecent talk, abusive epithets, annoying language, acts or conduct practiced upon persons without their consent with intent to coerce them to refrain from entering the employment of complainant, or to leave its employment; from attempting to cause any persons employed by complainant to leave such employment by intimidating or annoying such employees by annoying language, acts, or conduct, or cause persons willing to be employed by complainant to refrain from so doing by annoying language, acts, or conduct; from inducing, persuading, or causing, or attempting to induce, persuade, or cause the employees of complainant to break their contract of service with complainant or quit their employment; from entering the said premises of the complainant in the town of Phillipsburg aforesaid against its will, with intent to interfere with its business, and that the above-named defendants, and each and every of them, and any and all other persons associated with them be, and they hereby are restrained from in any manner interfering with, hindering, obstructing or stopping any of the business of the complainant, its agents, servants, or employees, in the operation of its said business at its said works in Phillipsburg, N. J., and from doing any act whatever in furtherance of any conspiracy or combination to restrain complainant, or its agents or employees, in the free and unhindered control of its business, and from ordering, directing, aiding, assisting, or abetting in any manner any person to commit any or either of the acts aforesaid, and from going, either singly or collectively, to the homes of the complainant's employees, or any of them, for the purpose of intimidating, or hiring or inducing, any or all of them to leave the employ of the complainant, or from entering complainant's employ, and from intimidating or in any manner threatening the wives, parents, or families of said employees at their homes, and from conspiring in meetings, or otherwise conspiring together, by threats or other unlawful coercion, to induce or coerce any of the employees of the complainant to leave the service of said complainant, or prevent any person by threats, intimidation, force, or violence from entering the service of complainant, and from inducing, or causing, or attempting to induce, or cause, merchants or tradesmen and others to refrain from, or to refuse to deal with the complainant and its employees, or those who board or lodge the employees of complainant by threats of injury to the business of such merchants or tradesmen and others, and from in anywise threatening any person or persons to injure his or their business, if such person or persons shall deal with the complainant and its employees, and from boycotting the complainant in its business, or those who deal with the complainant or the complainant's employees in their business, and from persuading or attempting to persuade merchants or tradesmen and others from dealing with the said complainant or its employees, or those who lodge or board the complainant's employees, and from using money of the said associations, or either of them, or associations allied to them, or either of them, or other money in furtherance of the purpose of preventing further employees of the complainant from returning to their work, and paying money to any employees of the complainant to induce them to leave, and to prevent persons seeking employment in the complainant's mill from taking said employment, and from collecting and assembling on private property near the mill of the complainant for the purpose of threatening, intimidating, annoying, and molesting the complainant's employees being on the complainant's premises, or passing to and from their work at complainant's mill, and, if owners and occupiers of said private property, from permitting such unlawful assemblages therein.

And it is further ordered that uncertified copies of this order may be served upon the defendants, within or without the State of New Jersey, and upon as many of them as can practically be served, and that uncertified copies of the bill of complaint and the affidavits annexed thereto be served on the said defendants, within or without the State of New Jersey, or upon as many of them as can practically be served, at least five days before said day of hearing.

INJUNCTION ORDER.

Upon reading the summons and complaint in this action, the complaint being verified February 14, 1903, and the affidavits of Horace K. Hathaway, E. Hildebrant, A. A. Rinker, F. P. Jay, F. A. Kies, Eugene Kies, A. M. Ennis, A. Dauch, B. Kern, G. L. Smith, A. Ward, G. Benson, C. J. Holland, Charles B. Swain, Walter Ketley, and others, Nathan B. Payne, Benjamin N. Payne, and Erwin J. Baldwin, each of said affidavits being verified February 14, 1903, it appearing therefrom to my satisfaction that the plaintiff demands and is entitled to a judgment against the defendants restraining the commission and continuance of the acts hereinafter enjoined, as violations of the plaintiff's personal and property rights, as mentioned and described in the complaint herein, and that the commission or continuance of such acts during the pendency of this action would produce injury to the plaintiff for which it has no adequate remedy at law; and the plaintiff having given an undertaking as required by law; and it appearing that this is a case where the right to an injunction order depends upon the nature of the action;

It is ordered that the defendants, and each and every one thereof, and all persons acting and combining with them, and each and every other person whomsoever, known or unknown, be, during the pendency of this action and until the further order of the court, enjoined and restrained and commanded absolutely to desist and refrain from in any manner or way interfering with the employees of the plaintiff now in its employ, and from in any manner interfering with any person who may desire to enter the employ of the plaintiff by means of threats, intimidation, espionage, picketing, personal violence, the calling or applying of the names "scab," "pimp," "pup," or any other indecent, insulting, or opprobrious name or epithet, or by any other means whatsoever calculated or intended to compel, prevent, or force any person from entering or continuing in the employment of the plaintiff, or calculated or intended to induce through fear, apprehension, or loss of social standing or injury to property or peace, any person from entering or continuing in the employment of the plaintiff, or calculated or intended to induce any such persons to leave the employment of the plaintiff; by threats, intimidations, coercive manner, physical or otherwise, from interfering with, intimidating, molesting, or threatening in any manner any person or persons with the purpose or intent of inducing such person or persons not to deal with or do business with plaintiff; or congregating or loitering about or near the neighborhood of the plaintiff's said shops or the home of any of its employees, or in any other places with the intent to interfere by threats, force, moral or physical coercion, or the application or calling of vile, opprobrious, or disagreeable names or epithet, with those who may at any time be the employees of the plaintiff, or who may desire at any time to become employees of the plaintiff or do any business of any kind or description with the plaintiff, or interfere with the prosecution of plaintiff's business, from picketing or patrolling the said shops or other premises of the plaintiff, or the homes and stopping places of its employees, or the approaches or entrances thereto, or loitering in or about any of the places named or making loud or boisterous noises in the vicinity thereof, for the purpose of intimidating, or such interference as aforesaid with the plaintiff's officers or employees or those who desire to become plaintiff's employees or to do business of any kind with it: from interfering in any manner aforesaid with the free access of all persons, employees or others, to plaintiff's premises or places of work, and the free and unmolested passage of such employees to and from their places of business or homes, or interfering by any act expressing or implying a threat, intimidation, or force or causing annoyance in any manner implying force and intimidation or threats to the employees of plaintiff; from giving directions or orders to any person or persons, committees, or bodies for the performance of any such act or threat hereby enjoined.

The grounds upon which this injunction order is granted are that the plaintiff's business has been and will be interfered with by the acts of the defendants of the character hereinbefore enjoined and restrained, and that the defendants have committed and are threatening to continue doings and acts of the character hereinbefore enjoined, which acts are unlawful and injurious and damaging to the plaintiff, for which grievances it has no adequate remedy at law.

ORDER OF INJUNCTION.

On reading and filing the summons and verified complaint herein and the affidavit of Ellis L. Rowe, verified May 5, 1906, the affidavits of Richard J. Rasmuson, Hans C. Beck, Katharine Rivers, Charles Rivers, George Isaacs and Moses Belledy, Frank Ille and George Briskan, all verified the 5th day of May, 1906, and it appearing to my satisfaction the plaintiff demands and is entitled to judgments against the defendant restraining the continuance of certain acts the continuance of which acts during the pendency of this action would produce injury to the plaintiff herein, and the said plaintiff having given security required by law, now, on motion of John Scanlon, attorney for the plaintiff, it is hereby ordered as follows:

That all of the defendants above named individually, collectively, and in their representative capacity, their agents, members, confederates, aiders, abettors, substitutes, sympathizers, and all persons instigated or incited thereto by them, or acting under their advice or control, and the members of said unincorporated association above named, and named in the complaint herein, be enjoined, restrained, and commanded to desist during the pendency of this action (1) from interfering with, harassing, or obstructing the carrying on of the manufacturing business of the plaintiff, and the labor and work thereof which is conducted and carried on by it at the point and place hereinbefore described in the complaint herein in the city of Cohoes, Albany County, N. Y., or elsewhere, and from in any manner interfering with, hampering, hindering, or harassing the free dispatch of business by said plaintiff; (2) from patrolling and picketing the streets or sidewalks in front of, around, or in the vicinity of the shops and works and establishment of the said plaintiff in said city, or there stationing pickets, patrols, or crowds for the purpose of coercing, threatening, intimidating, molesting, assaulting, turning aside, halting, or interfering with any persons in the employment of this plaintiff, either in going to or returning from their places of employment, or between their homes and boarding places and the said place of employment, or in any other place, or any persons who are seeking or who may seek to enter the employment of the said plaintiff in likewise going to or returning from the plaintiff's said shop and mills, or while passing from their said homes or boarding places to said plaintiff's factory, or in any other place; (3) from accompanying, following, talking with, or calling upon any person or persons employed or doing business with the said plaintiff, or who are seeking or who may seek to enter plaintiff's factory for employment against the express will of such persons for the purpose of intimidating, threatening, or coercing any such persons or in such manner as to intimidate, threaten, or coerce them; (4) from intercepting, interfering with, hindering, obstructing, or stopping any wagons, teams, teamsters, or equipment used or employed by plaintiff or by others in and about the transaction of plaintiff's business, for the purpose of threatening to assault, intimidate, or coercing such teamsters or hindering them in the free dispatch of their business, or in any manner injuring such wagons teams, equipment, or the property in the possession of such drivers or teamsters; (5) from congregating or loitering about the premises, works, and buildings of said plaintiff, for the purpose of annoying, preventing, molesting, intimidating, assaulting, or obstructing or turning aside against their express will any person or persons who are now or who may hereafter be employed by the plaintiff, or who now are or may hereafter be desirous of entering its employment, or any person or persons who may visit the premises of the plaintiff for such purpose; (6) from intimidating, annoying, insulting, or calling by the term "scab," or any other offensive name or term, any person or persons who are now in the employment of the plaintiff, or who may seek such employment; (7) from intimidating, annoying, threatening, assaulting, obstructing, or interfering with or halting or turning aside against their express will any person or persons entering or leaving the premises, shops, and mills of the plaintiff, or who are desirous of leaving or entering the same, or who are on their way to work for the plaintiff; (8) from combining, conspiring, or confederating together or by any scheme or conspiracy among themselves or with others organizing for the purpose of annoying, hindering, interfering with, harassing, or intimidating any person or persons who are now or may hereafter be employed for the plaintiff, or who may be desirous of entering such employment, from entering it or from continuing therein; (9) from wrongfully, unlawfully, and maliciously giving any orders or directing or performing any act or making any threats which will in any manner whatsoever obstruct or interfere with the regular operation and conduct of the business of the plaintiff, and of its shops, mills, and manufacturing establishment, and from interfering with, obstructing, with force, intimidation, violence, fraud, or otherwise, the business, trade, or property of the plaintiff; (10) from wrongfully, unlawfully, and maliciously giving any directions or orders or performing any act or making any threats which will in any manner whatsoever impede, obstruct, or interfere with the regular operation of the plaintiff and its manufacturing establishment, and from interfering with, obstructing, impairing, or injuring by threats, assaults, force, intimidation, violence, fraud, or otherwise the business, trade, or property of plaintiff.

The grounds upon which this order of injunction is granted are briefly these:

That it appears from the aforesaid complaint and affidavits that these defendants, their aiders, abettors, agents, members, confederates, and sympathizers are wrongfully and unlawfully interfering with the said business of this plaintiff and have been guilty of assaulting, coercing, intimidating, and interfering with employees of the plaintiff while going to or returning from their work in the plaintiff's factory, and preventing persons who are desirous of entering plaintiff's employment from so doing; that said defendants have instituted and maintained, and now continue, a system of patrolling and picketing around and in front of plaintiff's factory for the purpose of annoying, interfering with, assaulting, threatening, and otherwise molesting, intimidating, and halting the employees of this plaintiff and other persons desirous of entering the plaintiff's employment.

WRIT OF INJUNCTION.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,
Somerset County, ss:

To Andrew J. Coleman, high sheriff of Somerset County, Pa., greeting:

Whereas it has been represented unto us at our court of common pleas for the county of Somerset, in a certain cause there pending, wherein the Somerset Coal Company is complainant, and you, the said Daniel Young, Charles Walker, Francis J. Drum, Mark M. Smith, Robert Salmond, William Morgan, William McCullough, Thomas Haggerty, James Zelinski, Barney J. Palmer, and John Blatnick, all of whom are district officers and organizers of the sixteenth district of the United Mine Workers of America, the officers, their successors, and members of local unions Nos. 606, 2003, 610, 27, 888, 1731, 291, and Grassy Run local No. —, all of the United Mine Workers of America, are respondents, on the part of the said complainant, that you, Daniel Young, Charles Walker, Francis J. Drum, Mark M. Smith, Robert Salmond, William Morgan, William McCullough, Thomas Haggerty, James Zelinski, Barney J. Palmer, John Blatnick, the officers, their successors, and members of local unions Nos. 606, 2003, 610, 27, 888, 1731, 291, and Grassy Run local No. —, that you, the defendants, were conspiring together to interfere with the operating and conducting of the coal mines operated by Somerset Coal Company and by such interferences preventing the employees of the Somerset Coal Company from mining and producing coal in and from the mines belonging to and operated by Somerset Coal Company, and preventing any person or persons who desire to offer or enter its employ, and that unless the court grant an immediate restraining order, preventing you from interfering with the employees of the owners of said mines and those who desire to enter its employ, there was great danger of irreparable damages and loss to the owners of said mines.

We therefore, in consideration of the premises aforesaid, do strictly enjoin and command you, the said respondents, your agents, employees, and servants, as well as all persons combining and conspiring with you, your associates and confederates, and all other persons whomsoever known or unknown, be hereby restrained and enjoined and commanded absolutely to desist and refrain from, in any way or manner, interfering with the employees of the plaintiff, and with any person or persons who may hereafter desire or offer to enter its employ by the use or way of threats, intimidation, personal violence, opprobrious epithets or ridicule, or other means, calculated or intended to prevent such persons from entering or continuing in the employ of the complainant, or calculated or intended to induce any such person or persons to leave the employment of the plaintiff; and also from calling "scab" or "scabs," or any other opprobrious epithets to persons passing along the public streets or highways, and going to or from the works of the plaintiff, and who are in the employ or about to enter the employ of the said plaintiff, from picketing and loitering upon the premises of the plaintiff, or congregating about or in the neighborhood of the same, or on the highways of Somerset County, or any of the streets of any town, village, or borough of the said county, for the purpose of intimidating or interfering with the employees of the plaintiff, or with such persons who desire to enter its employ; from individually or collectively boarding incoming or outgoing trains or cars with the object or purpose of inducing men who are in the employ of the plaintiff to quit work, or of preventing, or attempting to prevent, any person or persons who may desire to enter its employ from so doing, by means of threats, intimidation, or undue pressure; from giving any orders or directions to committees, associates, or otherwise, for the performance of any such acts or threats hereby enjoined, from in any manner whatever impeding, obstructing, or interfering with the regular and unrestrained operation, conduct, and management of the business of the plaintiff, or the employees now in the employ of the plaintiff, or that may hereafter be employed by it.

It is further ordered that the aforesaid injunction shall be enforced and binding upon all the defendants named in the bill, your associates, confederates, and upon all other persons whomsoever who are not named therein, from and after the time when such other persons shall have knowledge of the entry of this order and the existence of this injunction.

And this injunction shall be taken as dissolved, in accordance with the equity rules, unless motion to continue be made on or before the 28th day of January, 1904.

Witness the honorable Francis J. Kooser, president judge of our said court, at Somerset, the 18th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four.

On the summons and complaint in the above-entitled action, and on the affidavits of W. J. Fairbairn and William W. Coleman, served herewith, and on the undertaking duly given on the part of said plaintiff and approved, and on motion of Turner, Hunter, Pease & Turner, attorneys for said plaintiff, it is ordered that until the further order of this court the above-named defendants and each and every member of the unions described in the title to this order, or either of them, and each and every of said individual defendants, and each and every of the servants and agents of the said individual defendants and the officers of the said unions, or either of them, and each and every person aiding or abetting said defendants, or any or either of them, be and they hereby are enjoined and restrained—

From impeding, hindering, obstructing, or interfering with any of the business of the plaintiff in the operation of its works and foundry, located adjacent to the tracks of the Chicago, Northwestern Railway Company and the tracks of the Milwaukee Light, Heat & Traction Company, in the city of South Milwaukee, county of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin; and from entering upon the grounds or premises of the plaintiff against its wish, for the purpose of impeding in any manner its business or interfering therewith.

From compelling or attempting to compel or induce, by use of threats or intimidation of any sort or fraud or deception or violence, any person to leave the employment of said plaintiff or not to enter its employ if desirous of so doing.

From compelling or attempting to compel or induce, by threats, intimidation, force, violence, or persuasion, any of the plaintiff's apprentices to break their contracts and leave the employ of the plaintiff;

From doing any act or thing whatsoever by any of the above-named means or methods in furtherance of a purpose to impede the trade or business of the plaintiff, or of maliciously compelling the plaintiff to conduct its business in a manner contrary to its desires, and from hiring, employing, and discharging molders and core makers and other persons as it may desire.

From impeding any of its officers or employees in the free and unhindered conduct or control of its business.

From in any manner whatever, either individually or in combination with each other or others combining and confederating with them, ordering, directing, aiding, counseling, assisting, or abetting any person, company, or organization to do or cause to be done any of the things aforesaid.

From congregating or ordering, directing, aiding, counseling, assisting, or abetting any persons to congregate at or near the premises of said plaintiff with the purpose and in such manner as to intimidate, obstruct, surround, or impede and in a manner calculated to intimidate, any of the employees or apprentices of said plaintiff or persons seeking employment from it in going to, remaining at, or coming from the premises of said plaintiff.

From in any manner interfering with or molesting any person or persons who may be employed by or be seeking employment of said company in the operation of its said business, and from doing any of said acts in combination with themselves or other persons, or in any manner whatever directing, aiding, counseling, or assisting any person or organization to do such acts.

From picketing, guarding, obstructing, impeding, or besetting the streets, alleys, and approaches contiguous to the premises of the said plaintiff with the purpose and in such manner as to intimidate, threaten, impede, obstruct, surround, or coerce any of the employees of said plaintiff, or persons seeking employment of said plaintiff to leave the employ of or not to enter the employ of the plaintiff.

From in any manner interfering with such persons in going to or from or in remaining at the works or place of business of said plaintiff, and from interfering with any such persons anywhere because of such persons being in the employment of said plaintiff, or of their seeking to be employed by it, or because such persons failed or refused to join in this present strike ordered May 2, 1906.

From going to the homes, boarding houses, or places of habitation of any employee or employees of said plaintiff, or persons seeking its employment, and from directing, aiding, counseling, assisting, or abetting any persons or organizations to do so with the purpose of intimidating or coercing any or all of them to leave the employment of the plaintiff, or from entering plaintiff's employment, as well as from intimidating or threatening in any manner the relatives, wives, and families of said employees at their homes or elsewhere.

From assaulting or committing personal violence upon any of the persons in the employ of or seeking employment with the said plaintiff; and from directing, aiding, counseling, assisting, or abetting any person or persons or organizations so to do or causing the same so to be done.

From compelling anyone in the employ of or seeking employment from said plaintiff to listen to any arguments of the said defendants or their coconspirators or pickets against his will.

From persuading or inducing in any manner any person to join or further their said conspiracy or any conspiracy to compel this plaintiff to give up or abate in any way its control of its said factory and business.

From doing any act tending or intended to compel this plaintiff against its will or the will of its officers to operate its factory or employ or discharge any workmen in any manner or upon any terms prescribed or to be prescribed by any association or union; or to refrain against its will or the will of its officers, from operating its said factory in any lawful manner.

And also from compelling or attempting to compel or induce by threats, intimidation, persuasion, force, or violence any of the said plaintiff's employees to refuse or fail to do their work, or to discharge their duties as such employees and also from compelling or inducing or attempting to compel or induce by threats, intimidation, persuasion, force, or violence any of the said plaintiff's employees to leave said plaintiff's service, and also by threats, intimidation, persuasions, force, or violence to compel or attempting to compel or induce any of the apprentices in the employ of the said plaintiff to break their contracts with the said plaintiff and leave the employ of the said plaintiff, and also from preventing or attempting to prevent any person or persons by threats, intimidation, persuasions, force, or violence, from freely entering the said plaintiff's service and employment.

Yungbluth, P. Janssen, John Radke, Paul Fredericks, Joe Fisher, Frank Schidlak (alias Frank Smith), Simon Radke, Louis Janicki, Roman Strysewski, Frank Loreck, John Jeske, defendants.

On the summons and verified complaint in the above-entitled action, and on the affidavits served herewith, and on the undertaking duly given on the part of said plaintiff and approved, and on motion of Turner, Hunter, Pease & Turner, attorneys for said plaintiff,

It is ordered that until further order of this court:

The above-named defendants, and each and every member of the unions described in the title to this order, or either of them, and each and every of said individual defendants, and each and every of the servants and agents of the said individual defendants and the officers of the said unions, or either of them, and each and every person aiding or abetting said defendants, or any or either of them, be, and they hereby are, enjoined and restrained:

From impeding, hindering, obstructing, or interfering with any of the business of the plaintiff in the operation of its works and foundry, located between Lincoln avenue and Becher street, adjacent to the tracks of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company, in the city of Milwaukee, county of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin; and from entering upon the grounds or premises of the plaintiff against its wish for the purpose of impeding in any manner its business or interfering therewith:

From compelling or attempting to compel or induce, by use of threats or intimidation of any sort or fraud or deception or violence, any person to leave the employment of said plaintiff or not to enter its employ if desirous of so doing.

From compelling or attempting to compel or induce, by threats, intimidation, force, violence, or persuasion any of the plaintiff's apprentices to break their contracts and leave the employ of the plaintiff.

From doing any act or thing whatsoever by any of the above-named means or methods in furtherance of a purpose to impede the trade or business of the plaintiff, or of maliciously compelling the plaintiff to conduct its business in a manner contrary to its desires, and from hiring, employing, and discharging molders and core makers and other persons as it may desire.

From impeding any of its officers or employees in the free and unhindered conduct or control of its business.

From in any manner whatever, either individually or in combination with each other or others combining and confederating with them, ordering, directing, aiding, counseling, assisting, or abetting any person, company, or organization to do or cause to be done any of the things aforesaid.

From congregating or ordering, directing, aiding, counseling, assisting or abetting any persons to congregate at or near the premises of said plaintiff with the purpose and in such manner as to intimidate, obstruct, surround, or impede and in a manner calculated to intimidate any of the employees or apprentices of said plaintiff or persons seeking employment from it in going to, remaining at, or coming from the premises of said plaintiff.

From in any manner interfering with or molesting any person or persons who may be employed by or be seeking employment of said company in the operation of its said business, and from doing any of said acts in combination with themselves or other persons, or in any manner whatever directing, aiding, counseling, or assisting any person or organization to do such acts.

From picketing, guarding, obstructing, impeding, or besetting the streets, alleys, and approaches contiguous to the premises of the said plaintiff with the purpose and in such manner as to intimidate, threaten, impede, obstruct, surround, or coerce any of the employees of the said plaintiff, or persons seeking employment of said plaintiff to leave the employ of or not to enter the employ of the plaintiff.

From in any manner interfering with such persons in going to and from or in remaining at the works or place of business of said plaintiff, and from interfering with any such persons anywhere, because such persons failed or refused to join in this present strike ordered May 2, 1906.

From going to the homes, boarding houses, or places of habitation of any employee or employees of said plaintiff or persons seeking its employment with the purpose of intimidating or coercing the plaintiff's employees to leave the plaintiff's employment, or with the purpose of intimidating or coercing those seeking employment from entering plaintiff's employment, and from directing, aiding, counseling, assisting; or abetting any persons or organizations to do so with the purpose of intimidating or coercing any or all of them to leave the employment of the plaintiff, or from entering plaintiff's employment, as well as from intimidating or threatening in any manner the relatives, wives, and families of said employees at their homes or elsewhere.

From assaulting or committing personal violence upon any of the persons in the employ of or seeking employment with the said plaintiff; and from directing, aiding, counseling, assisting, or abetting any person or persons or organizations so to do, or causing the same to be done.

From compelling anyone in the employ of or seeking employment from said plaintiff to listen to any arguments of the said defendants or their coconspirators or pickets against his will.

From persuading or inducing in any manner any person to join or further their said conspiracy or any conspiracy to compel this plaintiff to give up or abate in any way its control of its said factory and business.

From doing any act tending or intended to compel this plaintiff against its will or the will of its officers to operate its factory or employ or discharge any workmen in any manner or upon any terms prescribed or to be prescribed by any association or union; or to refrain against its will or the will of its officers, from operating its said factory in any lawful manner.

And also from compelling or attempting to compel or induce by threats, intimidation, persuasion, force, or violence any of the said plaintiff's employees to refuse or fail to do their work, or to discharge their duties as such employees and also from compelling or inducing or attempting to compel or induce by threats, intimidation, persuasion, force, or violence any of the said plaintiff's employees to leave said plaintiff's service, and also from compelling or attempting to compel or induce by threats, intimidation, persuasion, force, or violence any of the apprentices in the employ of the said plaintiff to break their contracts with the said plaintiff and leave the employ of the said plaintiff, and also from preventing or attempting to prevent any person or persons, by threats, intimidation, persuasion, force, or violence, from freely entering the said plaintiff's service and employment.

THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS, Providence, sc.

[L. S.]

To the Iron Molders Protective and Benevolent Union of Providence, R. I., No. 41, located in Providence, in said county and State, and Henry M. Donnelly, James H. O'Neil, and William Jones, all of said Providence; Joseph Valentine, of San Francisco, Cal.; James E. Roach, of Albany, in the State of New York, and D. A. White, of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, the said Valentine, Roach, and White both as individuals and as officers of the Iron Molders Union of North America, greeting:

We command that you appear before the appellate division of our supreme court, at Providence, within the county of Providence, on the 3d day of September, A. D. 1899, at 10 o'clock a. m., then and there to answer to a bill of complaint exhibited against you in our said court by the Providence Engineering Works, a corporation organized under the laws of said State and located in said Providence, and to do, and to receive what our said court shall then and there consider in that behalf.

Hereof fail not under the pains and penalty of the law in that behalf provided. And the sheriff of said county of Providence, or his deputy, or the sheriffs, or their deputies of other counties, are hereby commanded to make service of this writ upon said respondents according to law and further to notify the said respondents that said bill of complaint contains a prayer that said Henry M. Donnelly and James H. O'Neil, both individually and as president and corresponding secretary, respectively, of said Iron Molders Protective and Benevolent Union of Providence, R. I., No. 41 and said Iron Molders Protective and Benevolent Union of Providence, R. I., No. 41 and all other officers thereof and all the members of said union, and that said Joseph Valentine of San Francisco, in the State of California, James E. Roach of Albany, in the State of New York, and D. A. White of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, and the servants and agents of each and every of the parties aforesaid, may be temporarily enjoined.

1. From directly or indirectly interfering with any contracts which may have been made or which may hereafter be made by said complainant for castings and from directly or indirectly preventing any person, firm, or corporation who has heretofore contracted or who may hereafter contract with said complainant to make for it any castings from completing his or their or its contract, whether by threatening to cause the iron molders in his, their, or its employ to stop work or in any manner whatsoever.

2. From ordering, directing, or advising any of the iron molders employed by any person, firm, or corporation who has heretofore contracted or who shall hereafter contract to make any castings for said complainant, to strike or leave their work for the purpose of preventing the commencement or completion of any such castings.

3. From following said complainant's patterns for the purpose of in any manner whatever preventing or aiding in preventing said complainant from obtaining iron castings.

4. From directly or indirectly informing any member, officer, or agent of the National Iron Molders' Union, or any member, officer, or agent of any local iron molders' union, where said complainant's patterns are sent for the purpose of preventing said complainant from obtaining iron castings.

5. And from in any other manner whatsoever preventing or attempting to prevent said complainant from obtaining said castings.

Which said prayer for a temporary injunction will be in order for hearing on Wednesday, September 13, A. D. 1899, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Hereof make true return on or before said 13th day of September, A. D. 1899.

Witness, Hon. Charles Matteson, our chief justice, at Providence, this 6th day of September, A. D. 1899.

Nichols & Langworthy Machine Company v. William H. Johnston, et al. Equity No.

Decree.

This cause came on to be heard upon the amended bill of complaint and the complainant's application for a temporary injunction, and was heard upon affidavits filed on behalf of the complainant, and was argued by counsel, and thereupon, upon consideration thereof, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed that until further order of the court herein the respondents, William H. Johnston, of the city and county of Providence, in said State, Elisha Webster, Clarence P. Browning, Walter S. Maxon, Henry Maxon, William L. Greene, A. S. Corning, Fred Stanton, John Briggs, Frank Jordan, Harold Smith, John S. Barber, Clarence E. Gage, George Simpson, William H. Randall, James Briggs, George Briggs, Ralph J. Kenyon, Benjamin F. Tucker, Fred Quebec, Frank Maine, H. A. Mayne, Henry Whitford, William Church, Arthur Wilcox, Charles Aldrich, William D. Webster, F. Lester Smith, Bert Stanton alias John Doe, Enoch D. Jerue, all of the town of Hopkinton, in said county and State, and Frank Taylor, Walter Taylor, Edward Kenyon, Louis S. Kenyon, Paul Bailey, Leone Catelli, and Humbert Catelli, all of the town of Richmond, in said county and State, and all others unknown to the complainant, members of Local Union, No. 370, of the International Association of Machinists, and said Local Union, No. 370, and each of them, and any and all other persons associated with them, or aiding or abetting them, in committing the acts and grievances complained of in said bill, and all persons now or hereafter aiding or abetting said respondents or any of them, and all persons now or hereafter confederating with or acting in concert with said respondents or any of them or their servants or agents, be, and they are hereby, forbidden and enjoined:

From in any manner directly interfering with, hindering or obstructing the business of the complainant, the Nichols & Langworthy Machine Company, or its agents, servants, or employees in the maintenance, conduct, management, or operation of its machine shop, factory and business at Hope Valley, R. I.;

From compelling or inducing or attempting to compel or induce by threats, abusive language, opprobrious epithets, intimidations, force, or violence, or by persuasion against the will of the person sought to be persuaded, any of the employees of the Nichols & Langworthy

Machine Company to refuse or fail to perform their duties as such employees or to leave the service of said company;

From preventing or attempting to prevent any person or persons by threats, abusive language, opprobrious epithets, intimidation, force, or violence, or by persuasion as aforesaid from freely entering into or continuing in the service of the complainant, the Nichols & Langworthy Machine Company;

From doing any act whatever in furtherance of any conspiracy or combination to restrain or obstruct either the Nichols & Langworthy Machine Company, or its officers, agents, or employees in the free and unhindered control of the business of the Nichols & Langworthy Machine Company;

From collecting in and about the approaches to said complainant's works at Hope Valley and in and about the railroad stations at Hope Valley, at Wood River Junction, or at the "Crossing," so called, a railroad stop opposite the works of complainant, for the purpose of picketing, patrolling, or guarding the streets, fences, gates, and approaches to the property of the Nichols & Langworthy Machine Company at Hope Valley, R. I., for the purpose of intimidating its employees or preventing or hindering them from fulfilling their duties as such employees, or for the purpose or in such manner as to intimidate, threaten, or coerce any of the employees of the complainant or any person seeking employment of the complainant to leave its service or refuse to enter its service, and from interfering with the employees of the complainant in going to and from their daily work;

From maintaining at or near the premises of said company, or at or near said railroad stations, including said "Crossing," any picket or pickets in a threatening or intimidating manner;

From going singly or in numbers to the houses or boarding places of complainant's employees or any of them, for the purpose of intimidating, coercing, threatening, or collectively persuading any or all of them to leave the complainant's employment or from entering the complainant's employment;

From giving notice of the existence of a strike in complainant's manufactory by advertisement in the public press or otherwise for the purpose of preventing, discouraging, or intimidating workmen from seeking employment of said complainant;

From ordering, directing, aiding, assisting, or abetting in any manner whatever any person or persons to commit any or either of the acts aforesaid;

And it is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed that this injunction shall be in force and binding upon each of the said respondents, and shall be binding upon all persons whose names are alleged to be unknown and who are alleged to have been associated with the respondents in their unlawful acts in said bill complained of from and after the service of a copy of this order upon them, respectively, by reading or offering to read the same to them, or by leaving with them a true and attested copy of the same, and shall be binding upon said respondents and all other persons whomsoever who are not named therein from and after the time when they severally have knowledge of the entry of this order and the existence of this injunction.

Entered as the decree of court on this 29th day of May, A D 1907.
